Alberto Puerto

Artist Biography

Guitarist, composer, and arranger Alberto Puerto, whose work has shown a great deal of variety in the field of classical guitar, has developed a practical methodology at all levels of musical instruction. A native of Cuba known for his contrasting repertoire, he has performed in diverse styles from Baroque to popular Cuban music infused with jazz elements, both as a soloist and with various chamber music projects. He has long been an advocate for the fusion of the guitar with other artistic manifestations in a cohesive yet decorative manner.

During his 5 years as a professor at the Evangelical University of Bolivia, he imparted guitar, harmony and music theory courses, and motivated students to relate music to the arts in general, providing a platform that focused on developing creativity and emotion.

In Havana, he was concertmaster of the Sonantas Habaneras guitar orchestra for five years. This project was led by maestro Jesus Ortega, his mentor at the University of the Arts in Cuba.

Awards from various national and international competitions include Concurso Internacional de Guitarra Cochabamba, Bolivia 2010 and 2012, Musicalia 2009.

Alberto currently resides in Miami and has performed in numerous arts festivals and events such as the Miami International Ballet Festival 2017 and 2018, Art Basel Miami 2017 - 2018, Miami Guitart Festival 2018, LnS Gallery's Arcimboldo's Ghosts, an exhibition by Arturo Rodriguez, 2018, and Cernuda Arte Gallery's Cuban Arts Exhibition, 2019, among others.

In 2020, he recorded his first album The Great Cuban Suite, in which he showcases the diversity of Cuban musical genres through the classical guitar and at the same time interacts with renowned Cuban jazz percussionists in the recording. The album was released online in 2021 and was nominated for a CubaDisco award. In the same year, the artist formed his own music school in Coral Gables, Florida.

In 2023, Alberto Puerto Music was chosen for fiscal sponsorship by the National Performance Network and is presently developing a second recording album that probes a wider Latin American soundscape and involves singers of various musical genres interpreting his arrangements. Most recently, Alberto Puerto Music was chosen by JP Morgan Chase and Digital Undivided as a grantee for developing minority businesses in Miami, FL.
