In support of artistic collaboration

As part of our mission, Alberto Puerto Music engages with diverse arts communities and creates collaborative opportunities between artists of other disciplines and musicians. Our team was pleased to attend the opening of Empty Walls at the Coral Springs Museum in an effort to continue these interdisciplinary explorations.

Check out our events page for more information and let us curate the music for your next event!

Recording in progress

As we approach Hispanic Heritage Month, Alberto continues to work on the arrangement and recording of the Latin American lyrical album with soprano singer Yetzabel Arias. We would like to bring these new works to new spaces in the Miami area. If you have ideas for performance spaces, please reach out.
