Dear art enthusiasts,

🌿 As we step into April, let's tap into the peerless words of Carl Jung, reinvigorating our perspective on art:

"art is a kind of innate drive that seizes a human being and makes him its instrument. The artist is...one who allows art to realize its purpose through him."

This month, we're pleased to share a fresh exploration of a timeless masterpiece, discover the finest tools for artistic expression, and celebrate the achievements of our dedicated students as we pass on the transformative power of music to the next generation.

A Timeless Tune for a New Era

🌿 As we honor National Poetry Month, let's pay homage to Cuba's rich cultural heritage with Alberto's arrangement of a song that celebrates Cuba's Helen of Troy, the iconic guajira (country girl) who launches not just a fleet, but a nation's entry into modernity. This stirring rendition of Guantanamera, whose lyrics were adapted from Marti's legendary poems, was brought to life at the New World School of the Arts.

Fine instrument of the month: Bill Glez Guitar #41

🌿 This outstanding instrument stands as a testament to the craftsmanship of Bill Glez, one of South Florida's foremost luthiers. Boasting a pristine clarity and an unparalleled range of timbres, it empowers guitarists to weave interpretations with precision and depth. Crafted with a soundboard of top-tier German Spruce and adorned with back and sides of Indian rosewood, this guitar exudes elegance in both appearance and performance. For any inquiries, please feel free to reach out to us or directly to the luthier.
