Dear Music and Art Lovers,

As spring fades into summer's easy rhythm, we embrace a season of creativity and growth. With the slower pace comes the perfect opportunity to shine a light on our talented students. Our studio remains committed to a highly personalized approach to learning music, an approach that fosters both challenge and support in artistic practice. This spotlight is a testament to how skill-focused learning can lead to extraordinary achievements.

AP Music Students Shine at the New World School of the Arts Guitar Festival 2025.

Music is an evolving practice, and our student Franco is proof of that. After just one month of dedicated preparation, he shared a strong interpretation of a waltz by Francis Kleyjans at this year's festival, an event curated by the esteemed Dr. Koh Kazama. Under Dr. Kazama's mentorship, Franco explored new artistic possibilities, refining his expression and deepening his connection to the music.

to make music
with us!

🌊 Summer invites relaxation, but it's also a time to rediscover the delights of creativity. Music isn't just something to hear; it's something to experience, something to shape. More and more, research underscores its profound effects, aligning with essential dimensions of mental health: "mood, motivation, pleasure, and social functioning."
